

Julie Whitlock

Virginia Department of General Services Policy and Legislative Analyst

Julie Whitlock joined the Department of General Services in September 2013, where she assists the agency's Director's Office and business units with legislation, policy initiatives, and liaisons to the Office of the Attorney General.

Whitlock is an attorney who practiced in litigation, employment law and contracts prior to joining the Commonwealth in March 2000. She earned her Virginia Contracting Officer certification while working for the Information Technology Procurement Office at the Department of Motor Vehicles. She also served in the Technology and Procurement Law section at the Office of the Attorney General prior to joining DGS.

Whitlock earned her Bachelor of Arts in Foreign Affairs from the University of Virginia and her law degree from the University of Richmond School of Law.